DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-6 are presented for consideration on the merits.

Claim Objections

Claims 4 and 6 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a claim and multiple dependent claim must depend in the alternative only to a preceding claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 4 and 6 have been further treated on the merits but these claims need to be corrected by amendment upon response to this office action.

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1-4 provide for the use of a composition comprising whey, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Portman (US 6207638), cited on enclosed PTO-892 Form.

Claims are drawn to a composition and method(s) for treating conditions associated with diabetes comprising administering whey proteins.

Portman discloses administering a composition and method therefore, for treating conditions associated with diabetes comprising administering whey proteins in a range of 0.03 to 1.00, see columns 7-8, lines 1-10. Also see abstract.

The claims are identical to the teachings of Portman are, therefore, considered to be anticipated by Portman.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-6 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-6 of copending Application No. 10/562,460 in view of Portman.

The instant claims are discussed above.

The copending claims are drawn to a composition for treating conditions associated with diabetes wherein the composition comprises acetogenic fibers.

Portman teaches whey protein to be administered.

The claims differ from the copending claims in that acetogenic fibers are administered by the copending claims and whey protein by the instant claims.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the claimed invention was filed to replace the acetogenic fibers of the copending claims with the whey protein disclosed by Portman in order to provide for the claimed composition. The claims are prima facie obvious because one of skill would have been motivated to use whey protein as disclosed by Portman because it is shown to provide successful results. One of skill would have been motivated to select whey because soy and whey are disclosed by Portman and soy is acetogenic fibers and hence one of skill would have expected whey to work. The claims are obvious over the cited prior art.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection.

All claims fail to be patentably distinguishable over the state of the art discussed above and cited on the enclosed PTO-892 and/or PTO-1449. Therefore, the claims are properly rejected.

The remaining references listed on the enclosed PTO-892 and/or PTO-1449 are cited to further show the state of the art.

No claims are allowed.
